

Pluto, New Horizons Pluto-Palooza

A Free Public Program Offered By
Chicago Society for Space Studies

The world is abuzz over the NASA New Horizons mission flyby of Pluto on July 14, 2015. CSSS President Jim Plaxco will explore New Horizon's discoveries as well as taking a look back at the history of Pluto's discovery and its demotion by the International Astronomical Union from planet to dwarf planet status.

This program is free and open to the public.

WHEN: Sunday, July 19, 2015 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM

WHERE: Adult Classroom, Schaumburg Township District Library
130 South Roselle Road, Schaumburg, IL

DETAILS: www.chicagospace.org/events.html